Introduction from Jeannine Anderson

Nancy Moretti and I will serve as Interim Co-Presidents to serve out the remainder of Ann Bianchi's term of office. Ann went above and beyond the call of duty during her tenure and we will miss her drive, leadership, flair and ability to get things done. When the summer was over and Ann returned to her teaching job, she found that there were some new time-consuming aspects to deal with and found herself overextended and had to pare down her outside schedule in order to be able to take care of the needs of her "first" job. However, all is not lost. We are happy to say that Ann will be around to help in any way she can, advise us and cheer us on. That's a good thing.

The older club members know both of us. For the newer members, Nancy served as President for four years and I followed her as President for the next three years. We probably have done every job in the club and we both love the club and want to see it continue. We will need your help and enthusiasm to keep it going. So, when we ask for volunteers, please raise your hand or contact us. We are entering our 60th year...that's a long time and it happened because people cared enough to keep it going. It cannot continue if the same people are in charge. New blood is needed to keep it vital. If you have any ideas for future art shows, plein air venues, workshops, social events, trips, presenters, etc., please feel free to contact us to discuss the possibilities. Don't be shy. The future of the club rests in your hands.

A sign-up sheet for hospitality (bringing in the goodies) will be circulated at the November meeting for February through June 2019. If anyone would like us to go back to having coffee with our goodies, we could do that if we have volunteer(s) come forward to make the coffee. There is a "recipe" taped to the coffee maker to make measuring simple. The December meeting, which is a social event (no presenter), everyone is asked to bring in a goodie to put on our hospitality table. More on that later.
