

November 2019

Welcome

In October, Don Mong and I each made the decision to take a leadership role in the East Greenwich Art Club. Though the final lineup became myself as President and Don as Vice President, we see ourselves as a unit - a team where each brings different strengths to the Club! Along with a strong Executive Board and enthusiastic Directors, we are planning an exciting year ahead. We met on October 22nd to map our 2020 goals and will be working in the next month to continue our tradition of creative presentations at our monthly meetings. We will strengthen our educational programs and seek to increase membership and volunteerism. We also plan to become a more public presence in our community through a variety of contacts and activities. We know that all members will help us continue the 60-year journey and look forward to your support and ideas as we move forward!

Thank you,
Dan and Don

November Presenter

Marjorie Ball

As artists change and learn things about art and themselves, their paintings change. No matter how one thinks a painting is finished, one often makes changes- sometimes years later. In like manner, several versions of an idea may evolve on the same canvas!

Marjorie Ball will begin a new work during the November meeting and provide an image of it for the Club's web page. Then, as she continues to work back in her studio, she will allow us to post later images, demonstrating the evolution of the work.

Please join us to watch one of East Greenwich's Master painters as she begins the evolution!

From Marjorie's website: <https://marjorieball.com/about>

"My subjects are the glow of afternoon sun as it warms the side of a white farmhouse, the lights of a city, or the vista across a patterned expanse of the earth. More intimate subjects are still life or figurative. I brush or wipe on layers of luminous oil colors. Then I wipe, scrape, scratch, or layer over my original marks, to obscure or reveal parts of my original explorations.

Explore with me...."

Artist of the Month

Barbara Canning

<https://www.barbaracanningart.com/about.html>

I am very inspired by those things that evoke memories. In my art, I attempt to capture those images in my still life and plein air paintings. I paint from life as much as possible and on site whenever I can. I invite the viewer to journey with me and explore these captured moments.
